

FAQ's Sheet for PAC Model: Marlton Assembly of God & Vailsburg Assembly of God

- What is a PAC model? Parent Affiliated Church.
- What is the purpose of a PAC model? To enhance the Great Commission by strengthening the mission of each church into one united fellowship with separate locations, in order to better facilitate ministry in various geographical areas.
- How will the PAC model be a blessing to both churches?
 1. Missional Opportunities
 2. Increased Ministry Opportunities
 3. Development of Leaders
 4. Enlarged Ministry Footprint
 5. Embracing our Cities
- Has this type of PAC model been done before? There are over 2,000 churches in America with this structure. Locally, Bethany Church, Wyckoff, NJ has had great success and church growth with the PAC model.
- Is there someone coaching and advising Marlton and Vailsburg through this process? Yes, New Jersey Network Superintendent, Rev. Don James.
- What is the history of Vailsburg Assembly of God? Pastor Otto Wegner, home missionary with the Assemblies of God, started Vailsburg Assembly of God in 1993. In 1992, Pastor Wegner bought the abandoned Kilburn Memorial Presbyterian church and recruited hundreds of volunteers from around America to invest $1,000,000 of volunteer hours to restore the beautiful facility. Vailsburg is also the former church of Pastors Jon Wegner (1994-2007) and Jermel Mayo (2001-2017), presently at Marlton Assembly of God.
- Current circumstances at Vailsburg Assembly of God? Covid has had a major impact on churches in America, especially inner-city churches. Also, in November of 2020, the heating system of Vailsburg went out and public worship services ceased.
